Deck the Halls!

We would like to deck our library halls with some Christmas decorations this year and we could use your help! We would like to make some ornaments for our trees featuring photographs of families reading together. If you are interested in participating, please send photographs to Mrs. Pichowski (email apichowski@threelakesd.k12.wi.us or in person) as soon as possible! Thank you for your participation!

Christmas Program

The Sugar Camp School Christmas program is early this year, so start planning now for a great concert on Thursday, December 15. It will take place in the Three Lakes auditorium starting at 6:30 and will conclude about 8 p.m. with a visit from Santa and Mrs. Claus. Parents are asked to bring their K-6 children to the Three Lakes commons area by 6:15 p.m. Children will then be taken to the IMC and music rooms for final preparations before the program. Students arriving before 6:15 must be supervised by their parents/family members.

Early Release Day

Friday, December 23 is an early release day. Students will be leaving at 12:45. Please make child-care arrangements as needed.

Grandparents Day was held on November 18. Check out the pictures on the back of this newsletter, it was a special day!

Healthy Playground Makeover

We have a vision of updating our playground and we need your help. Please go to the Healthy Playground Makeover Sweepstakes-Together Counts site and vote for Sugar Camp School. You never know, with your votes, we could win!

Turkey, What?

On November 21, the Sugar Camp students had the opportunity to take part in a frigid, yet friendly, turkey bowling competition as part of the November Fuel Up to Play 60 physical challenge. Students in grades K-6 assembled on the playground at 10 a.m. recess and had the opportunity to fling an 11-pound turkey down our icy outdoor bowling lane to knock over ten bowling pins. Students who bowled strikes were: Blake Joslin and Wyatt Donner in Kindergarten, Masen Schoeneck and Emma Korten Hof in first-grade, Lillie Doppke, Kailyn Fogerty, Matthew Klein, Levi Lurvey, and Jake Siedschlag in third-grade, and Emma Stoehr in fourth-grade. Congratulations, turkey bowlers! Thanks to our Fuel Up to Play 60 team for providing this fabulous Thanksgiving activity.
