

FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS ONLY

RELEASE OF STUDENT INFORMATION SPECIAL NOTICE

Section 9528 of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 requires schools to release student information to military recruiters unless the student/parent/guardian “opt out” in writing. The information requested is directory information including name, address, and telephone number. If you prefer that this directory information not be provided to the military recruiters, you must complete this form and return it to the principal’s office.

As a parent/guardian, I am exercising the right to request that you do not turn over directory information, including the name, address and telephone numbers of the following students to the Armed Services, Military recruiters, or Military Schools.

As a student of age of majority, I am exercising the right to request that you do not turn over my name, address, or telephone number to the Armed Service, Military Recruiters or Military Schools.
