

BLUEJAY BUZZ

JH/SH EDITION

It's Fri-yay! We're one week closer to spring, and we're also closing in on the spring testing season. We'll have more information as we get closer, but for now, please make note that our state testing window will be from April 15-28. See what else is new below, and as always, let us know if you have any questions.

Snowshoeing In Phys. Education

Some of our high school and junior high classes have had a chance to experience snowshoeing this past week. Mr. Volk's classes strapped on snowshoes and headed out to the woods behind the Three Lakes campus to learn what snowshoeing is all about. Take a look at the photo gallery here.

To Build a Winter Shelter

The temperatures outside were pretty cold this past week, but students in Mr. Votis' Global Science class managed to stay warm by hunkering down in their winter survival structures. The students spent several weeks building the structures in the woods behind the Three Lakes campus. Take a look at a few of the structures by click here.

A Culinary Trip to Germany

Ms. Kroll's International Foods students had a chance to take a culinary trip to Germany. They spent some time in the food services kitchen making pork cutlets, red cabbage and spaetzel. The project was part of the students' study of European cuisine. Take a look at a few photos by clicking on this gallery.

Fine Arts Gala on March 2

Get ready for a night of the arts this coming Monday, March 2! The fine arts dept. will host an evening of music, fine art and more. Come view student artwork in the commons area as we kick off the start of the district art show. And then, stay for musical performances that begin at 7 pm. You can come and go during performances. Doors open at 6:30 pm. We hope to see

Racine Kringles Sale Starts

The Three Lakes Special Education Dept. is again holding a kringle fundraiser. The sale will go through March 13. Just download the order form, which can then be returned to the elementary office. Or, stop by to see Ms. Maney to place an order. And remember, you can freeze kringles, so order plenty! Cost is $9 each.

ACT Tests and Safety Training

A reminder to our juniors that ACT testing will be on Tuesday, March 3. Testing begins promptly at 8:15 am and runs until 1:30 pm. A few classes have been shifted around to accommodate the testing, and students will receive instruction from their teachers on where to report on Tuesday. On this day, our sophomores and seniors will also go through first-aid training.
