SUGAR CAMP ELEMENTARY NEWS

It's going to be a beautiful weekend, so get out outside, rake some leaves or go on a hike. And, come out for the Three Lakes Drama Club's presentation of Oz. Performances will be on Friday and Saturday at 7 pm and Sunday at 1 pm. The Bluejays are also playing in the regional volleyball championship game on Saturday at 5 pm at Three Lakes. Take a look below to see what else is new this week, and as always, let us know if you have any questions.

Kindergarten Fashion Show

We have a few fashionistas in Ms. Stefoni's kindergarten class! This week, the class donned paper bags decorated in their assigned letter to celebrate all things alphabet. They put on a show for their parents in the classroom before heading out into the halls to show off for the entire student body. What a fun way to celebrate those ABCs.

4K Takes on the Topic of Pumpkins

If fall were a plant, it would probably be the pumpkin. Pumpkins just represent so much this time of year, AND, they're a great topic to learn about. In Ms. Griesbach's 4K classroom, students carved pumpkins, made a pumpkin craft and learned about the life cycle of the pumpkin, all with pumpkins donated from Mr. Jim Hein.

Save the Date, Grandparents!

Grandparents Day is coming up on Nov. 22, so save the date and be sure to invite your grandparents or family friends to come for the day. In art class, Ms. Wallschlaeger has been busy prepping for the day as well. Students recently made fall aprons for the servers who will be working during lunch on Grandparents Day.

From the Library Shelf

It's the perfect time of year for a spooky book, and the Sugar Camp kids are eating them up! The library just received a bunch of Scary Places books, and they are flying off the shelf. With Halloween next week, these nonfiction texts are the perfect way to get your in the creepy mood! Check one out today, but make sure you read it with the lights on!
